

Clarence Central School District Hybrid Learning Model – 7/27/20

On defined days, some students will learn remotely, and others will learn at school. The strategy reduces density in classrooms, on buses, and the school building overall. Pursuant to the most recent guidance from NYS Education Department and the NYS Department of Health regarding social distancing, the hybrid learning model appears to be the best method for addressing the health and safety of Clarence students.

Students Will Be in 5 Groups

Group A:

Attends school on Monday & Thursday; remote learning takes place on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday.

Group B:

Attends school on Tuesday & Friday; remote learning takes place on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

Group C:

Specific student subgroups (subgroups (8-1-1, 8-1-2, 12-1-1, 15-1-1, Integrated 15-1, ENL only) will attend school on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday; remote learning will take place on Wednesday.

Group D:

Students whose parents are choosing the option to learn remotely 100% of the time.

Group E:

Kindergarten and first grade students will be split into two cohorts. One cohort will attend school each day of the week in-person for a morning half-day session and the other cohort will attend school each day of the week in-person for an afternoon half-day session. Kindergarten students will learn remotely every day of the week opposite their in-person session assignment.

All students in grades 2-12 will learn from home on Wednesdays. There will be a truncated schedule that allows for both instruction and for teachers/staff to participate in professional development and plan.
